Kansas Aviation Museum

The Kansas Aviation Museum is a museum located in Wichita, Kansas, near 31st South and George Washington Blvd. The building, designed by Glen H. Thomas, served as Wichita Municipal Airport's terminal from 1935 to 1954.

One of the airplanes on display is the winner of the 1929 Powder Puff Derby, on loan from the 99s. Come and get a selfie with this historic airplane that led to the formation of the 99s.

Saturday, May 2, 2026 12:30 PM to 2:00 PM

Bonnie Johnson of the Air Capital 99s will be the luncheon speaker. She has been recognized by the Kansas Aviation Museum for her contributions to Aviation in the Wichita Area as the first female Director of the Aerodynamic Laboratories at Wichita State University.

She has served in all the officer positions of the Air Capital 99s Chapter. She has been Chair of the Wichita Section of Society of Women Engineers, and Amelia Earhart Birthplace Museum Board of Trustees.

She placed in the top 10 four of the 15 years of her involvement with the Air Race Classic, doing as well as Amelia Earhart with a 3rd place win.

In her retirement she loves to travel and take photographs. During March of 2025, her and her husband Phil Ciholas did a flying tour of New Zealand. She will share her experience with us at Saturday’s luncheon.
